“On Saturday, July 13, 2013 Sergeants Palumbo and Kettelle were on a Liquor Law Compliance Survey detail. At 1826 hours I, Sergeant Kettelle, drove to Ward's Publik House and had an underage agent go in to the business to attempt to buy a beer. The underage agent was able to get served by the bartender one beer. The underage agent was not asked for his age or his identification. At this point Sergeants Palumbo and Kettelle responded in to the bar and identified Melissa Guariglia as the person who served the underage agent. She was advised this was a survey and was given a verbal warning. Due to the aforementioned facts the management of Ward's Publik House is in violation of the following rules and regulations issued by the Board of Public Safety for the orderly operation of liquor establishments.

6. Yokohama Japanese Restaurant (Liquor License Violation) – July 9,

“On July 9, 2013 at 1841 hours, Sergeant Palumbo and Detective Shaun Turcotte were completing the alcohol purchase survey. The officers were currently with an underage alcohol surveyor, Calvin Carpenter (DOB 12/21/92). Carpenter was identified as being 20 years of age, based on the Rhode Island identification provided for the purpose of this survey. At which time the officers responded to Yokohama Japanese Restaurant located at 300 Quaker Lane. The alcohol surveyor entered the restaurant with currency provided by the officers to purchase one 12-ounce bottle of Heineken beer. Shortly thereafter, the alcohol surveyor reported to the officers that he had been served.

Upon entering the establishment, the officers spoke with Alexander Roskowski (DOB 7/27/85), who was the bartender at the time. He confirmed that he did serve the alcohol surveyor without asking for his age or identification. Personal information was obtained from Roskowski, and Roskowski was warned of his actions. There are no criminal charges forthcoming.”

Due to the aforementioned facts the management of Yokohama Japanese Restaurant is in violation of the following rules and regulations issued by the Board of Public Safety for the orderly operation of liquor establishments.

The alcohol surveyor entered the premises with currency provided to him by the officers. Upon approaching the bar, the alcohol surveyor requested a single 12 oz. bottle of Heineken beer. At which time he was subsequently served.
